

Long-Term Care Doesn't Have to Bankrupt Your Family

Do you know the cost of long-term care? From assisted living to nursing homes, the average costs range from $4,000 to $8,000 a month. It's a cost so high it can easily eat through all your saved assets and become a burden to adults kids and family members.

But there are things you can do to prevent financial collapse from long-term care costs. The right estate planning can help you minimize costs and protect your assets, protecting your spouse and family members from bearing the burden. Learn from two Texas Legal network attorneys how you can protect your family from the overwhelming costs of long-term care.

Don't Forget: Sign Up With Experian

Our identity theft benefits provider recently changed as AllClearID was purchased by Experian IdentityWorks. That means all of our members need to re-register their benefits. Here's how to do it:

For more information, including how to register your spouse or children, click here.

Lemonade Freedom is Here!

Last month, we posted on Facebook about how a good ol' fashioned lemonade stand was actually illegal in Texas, and many of you were outraged. We're glad to report that the Texas Legislature recently passed a bill allowing kids to sell lemonade without fear of being busted. "Lemonade freedom day is here," said state Rep. Matt Krause of Fort Worth, author of the bill. Read the entire article here.

“Even after being a member for over 30+ years, I still am on the plus side as I know I have received more in services rendered than I have paid in dues.”

- Nita, Texas Legal Member

Follow Texas Legal on Facebook

Get important information about your membership, tips on using your plan and exclusive legal advice from Texas Legal network attorneys. Like Texas Legal on Facebook!

Copyright © 2019 Texas Legal, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

