

Don't Let Legal Stress Derail Your Life

Nearly half of Americans say they've experienced a legal issue in the past two years. And legal problems can be incredibly stressful.

A large percentage of folks with a legal issue reported their legal problem led to:

- Stress-Related Illness
- Relationship Breakdown
- Lost or relocated employment
- Problems with alcohol or drugs

But a legal issue doesn't have to derail your entire life. If you have a legal plan, you have the peace of mind that you can have an expert attorney by your side without worrying about the cost. Learn more about legal stress and how a legal plan like Texas Legal can help.

Vacation Visitation

With the end of the school year approaching and summer on the horizon, you may be planning summer vacation. If you're divorced, that means planning visitation. What are you legally entitled to (or obligated to) when it comes to summer visitation with your kids and your ex? Read about it from Texas Legal network attorney Angela Faye Brown.

"I really love knowing I have legal advice on hand in case the situation arises. It gives me peace of mind."
