

Do You Have a Living Will?

In the last five years, nearly half of Americans have had a loved one experience a terminal illness or a coma, but less than 30 percent of us have a Living Will - a document that indicates your preferences for medical care in case you were not able to decide.

Do you have a Living Will?

As a Texas Legal member, it's free as part of your estate planning benefits. Learn why you need one and how to get one done by a qualified attorney near you.

Did you know... ?

Wondering if you should talk to an attorney? Your membership covers 2-4 attorney consultations a year, so there's no reason not to. Skip the Google search and get an expert who understands your situation. Find your attorney today.

Hiring a Home Contractor?
Watch for These Red Flags

Planning to remodel your home this year? If you're hiring a contractor, check out our list of red flags to avoid. And if something doesn't go as planned, remember - you have consumer law coverage as a member, and we can help make it right!

"I am beyond grateful that [Texas Legal] exists. I was going through chemo treatments and was unable to work, so having something so low-cost that got me the help I needed was absolutely invaluable."

- Patricia, Texas Legal Member

Love Texas Legal?

Like any small business these days, we depend on your reviews to get the word out about Texas Legal. Would you mind leaving us a review on Google? We'd truly appreciate your help!

