

How a Legal Plan Can Help With Storm Recovery

We hope that you and your loved ones are safe and recovering from Winter Storm Uri. As fellow Texans, we are doing the same. We'd like to do everything we can to help fellow Texans during this difficult time.

It might not seem like a legal plan can help much with burst pipes or out-of-control electricity bills, but there are actually a number of ways you can use a Texas Legal plan after a disaster.

Here are a few ways your legal plan can help you - from dealing with contractors or landlords to claims with insurance or government benefits and more. We hope we can be helpful in some way to help life return to normal!

Coming Soon: Member Portal

We know legal issues don't always happen during business hours. That's why we're about to launch on an online member portal to help our members access their legal benefits anytime, anywhere and make it easier to use our plans.

With our new portal, members will be able to:

- Access policy documents to better understand benefits
- Print or Request a new ID card
- See claim history
- Send us a secure email

Look for a portal launch email with your unique registration code coming in early April!

Avoiding Bankruptcy Mistakes

With the pandemic taking a financial toll, many more folks are considering bankruptcy to solve their financial woes. But there are seven common mistakes that people make when filing for bankruptcy. Learn what they are and how to avoid them with advice from Texas Legal network attorney Mark French.

“Excellent service from Texas Legal and excellent service from the legal firm I worked with. Very, very happy with the whole process.”
