The Basics of Protective Orders
Tuesday, October 18th 1:00 p.m.

Jessica Houghtby
Pennington Law PLLC

October is National Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Leaving an abusive relationship can be difficult for many reasons. On average it takes a victim 7 attempts to leave their domestic violence situation. There are many tools and resources in Texas to help victims, one significant tool is filing a Protective Order. Understanding who can get a protective order, what it does, and how to proceed afterward is very important.

Join us on Tuesday, October 18th at 1:00 p.m. for a live webinar featuring Texas Legal Attorney Jessica Houghtby as she discusses Protective Orders in Texas. She will be answering questions submitted by the viewers during the live webinar.

Texas Legal Benefits

As a member of Texas Legal, your benefits may include representation* for protective orders. This is in addition to many other benefits including Family Law, Estate Planning, and General Legal Services. The average rate of these services without a Texas Legal Membership is $279 per hour in Texas. Make sure you are getting the most out of your benefits with Texas Legal by reviewing your plan's benefits!

To find an attorney and learn more about your specific plan benefits, visit TexasLegal.org.

*The Protective Order benefit under the Secure and Preferred Plans covers participating attorneys' billable time for representation in proceeding for a protective order where the insured member is either the applicant or the respondent in the proceedings. The Select Plan does not cover protective orders. Please reference plan documents for more details and other benefit limits. FAMILY LAW NOTE: all divorce, custody, and modification benefits are subject to a six (6) month waiting period and cover the primary policyholder only. For more details regarding your specific plan and available benefits, please contact Texas Legal at 1-800-252-9346 or members@texaslegal.org.
