Custody | Grandparent Rights in Texas
Thursday, Sept 15th 1:00 p.m.

John Nwosu
The Law Office of John Nwosu, PLLC

The reality of Grandparents raising their grandchildren is a growing phenomenon in Texas. According to the 2021 U.S. Census report, more than 1.5 million children across the country live exclusively with their Grandparents. In Texas, Grandparents have rights when filing a SAPCR (Suit Affecting the Parent-Child Relationship) to gain custody and support for their grandchildren.

Join us on Thursday, September 15th at 1:00 p.m. for a live webinar featuring Texas Legal Attorney John Nwosu as he discusses Grandparent Rights and SAPCR proceedings. He will be answering questions submitted by the viewers during the live webinar.

Family Law Benefits

As a member of Texas Legal, your Family Law benefit includes representation* for custody agreements and/or modifications. This is in addition to divorce, protective orders, and adoptions that also fall under Family Law. The average rate of these services without a Texas Legal Membership is $279 per hour in Texas. Make sure you are getting the most out of your benefits with Texas Legal by reviewing your plan's benefits!

To find an attorney and learn more about your specific plan benefits, visit TexasLegal.org.

*The Family Law benefit under the Secure and Preferred Plans covers participating attorneys' billable time for uncontested modification, enforcement, or establishment of Family Law orders (OR up to 20 hours if contested). The Select Plan covers participating attorney's billable time of up to 10 hours. Please reference plan documents for more details and other Family Law benefits limits. NOTE: all divorce, custody, and modification benefits are subject to a six (6) month waiting period and cover the primary policyholder only. For more details regarding your specific plan and available benefits, please contact Texas Legal at 1-800-252-9346 or members@texaslegal.org.
