Declaration of Guardian | Estate Planning
Tuesday, March 21st 12:30 p.m.

As part of a complete estate plan, every parent should include a Declaration of Guardian for Children. This declaration is essential in the event you are no longer able to care for your children. Texas Legal Attorney Eileen Lawrence regularly meets with clients to explain what a Declaration of Guardian is, why it is needed, and how to choose a guardian.

Join us on Tuesday, March 21st at 12:30 p.m. for a live webinar featuring Texas Legal Attorney Eileen Lawrence as she discusses estate planning and the declaration of guardians for children. She will be answering questions submitted by the viewers during the live webinar.

Eileen Lawrence has been practicing law for over 14 years in Texas. Her firm is located in Round Rock, Texas, and provides estate planning services.
