Adoption: Pathways to Family
Friday, November 19th 1:00 p.m.

When looking to start or grow your family, there are many options including adoption. But within adoption, there are many more pathways to creating your forever family. Join us on Friday at 1:00 p.m. for a live webinar featuring Texas Legal network attorney John Nwosu of The Law Office of John Nwosu, PLLC as he discusses the various options when adopting. John Nwosu has been practicing law in Texas for over 10 years, primarily focusing on Family Law and Immigration Law.

Submit questions to members@texaslegal.org beforehand or ask during the live webinar in the comment section.

Identity Theft & Adoption

Identity theft for minors is on the rise, especially so for those previously in the care of the state. In 2017, more than 1 million youth were the victims of identity theft in the United States. The perpetrator was usually a close family member, parent, or former guardian. Because foster and adoptive children's personal information is available to many adults, this group is at increased risk of being a victim. There are a few important things you can do to protect your child from identity theft during and after adoption.
